Lady Sovereign or Louise, which of course nobody calls her, stepped up onto the stage. The crowd before her was a typical lot, a mix of a few of her hardcore fan base, some idolising girls and boys, a load of locals and some people who were there for the semi-famous supporting act. All in all about 750 people were seated in the auditorium before her. However with the flick of her arms she had them all standing in anticipation of her act.

“Little shhh for the MC please (thank-you)

Yo I ain't featherweight nor bantom weight,

Cause the only thing I be is heavyweight,

Let me demonstrate lyrically decorate,

Check out the vibe that I create...”

As the concert went on Sovereign got more and more hyper active, she added in more ab lib freestyle and started to pick on direct members of the audience with her rhymes, making them feel small but special at the same time in her own way. About three quarters of the way through Lady Sovereign approached one tall dark girl at the front who was nodding away at the songs. As she bent down to begin rapping at her a flash of recognition swept through her mind. She almost choked as she saw a girl who she hadn't seen since she was 15.

As she finished the concert Louise Amanda Harman couldn't stop thinking about the girl. She was sure it was her but she had to make sure. As soon as her encore was over she darted over to the venue manager and asked him to have the girl in the pink coat with the short black hair and the small scar on her cheek stopped before she left. The manager got onto it and found the girl surprisingly quickly; she was told that she had been randomly selected to talk to Lady Sovereign just as she was buying some novelty items at the merchandise counter.

As she walked into her changing room Louise once again admired the girl. She was a skinny Afro-Caribbean girl with size 36B chest and the sexiest butt lady sovereign had ever seen. Her short hair seemed to suit her pretty well and her face was more pronounced than it had been before. Quickly she worked out that the 'girl' must be 22 now as she was a year younger than her and that meant it had been eight years since they had last seen each other. That had been at another concert. Then there had only been around twenty people there and Lady Sovereign was just doing a bit of MC'ing.

Lady sovereign was just wearing her usual adidas tracksuit and her hair was its usual length and in the usual style. In comparison Sov also had a smaller chest and was much shorter.

To her surprise the girl from her past was followed by a guy. He was also black and was about six foot tall, with short hair and a fit looking body.

“Hi Lady S” Frankie, Lady Sovereign’s friend, kicked off the conversation.

“Let’s not beat around the bush babe.” Sovereign replied, she knew exactly why she was here. The first time they had met Lady Sovereign had lost her lesbian virginity to her. They had spent the next month or so meeting up most days and having every kind of girl on girl sex. However after a month Louise had stopped it, saying that she wanted more than just pussy all the time. But she had promised that if Frankie ever found a boy friend she would have a threesome.

“What took you so long to get a guy?” She asked.

“I’ve been enjoying female attention mostly; I couldn’t bear the thought of penis. But now I want you and so I made the sacrifice”.

The guy grinned at this and Lady Sovereign could tell that the ‘sacrifice’ had included some pretty good sex for him.

“What’s his name?”

“I’m Joey, Frankie and I know each other from work”.

“Ah cool what do you do now babe?” Sov asked.

“I do day shifts up at Somerfield’s and two nights a week at a pub, that’s where we met”.

After some more small talk everyone started to grow bored. It was Lady Sovereign who made the first move. She got the other two to come back to her flat with her. They travelled in a taxi and along the way Frankie seemed to rub legs with Louise a lot, Lady S also noticed that there was an arousing smell coming from between her fish net covered legs. When the three got out of the car Sovereign noticed a wet patch where Frankie had been sitting and looking up she smiled as she noticed that her ex lover was wearing no underwear and her vagina was clearly lubricated.

They all went inside the rappers flat and all three immediately headed for the bedroom, not even hesitating to exchange pleasantries.

Lady Sovereign smiled, “welcome to my cribs. I see you like the bedroom especially”.

Frankie replied by picking up the dildo beside Louise’s bed and grinning madly.

For the first time since they had left the concert Joey spoke, “So... does everybody want to get naked now?”

Frankie laughed and kissed him on the cheek before bending over and taking off her shoes – giving Joey a clear view of her uncovered mound. He noticed how well shaven it was.

About two minutes later and everybody had taken off all their clothes. Lady sovereign looked at Frankie’s now naked body. It seemed perfect and it was, except for the little scar on the cheek which stood out against her ebony form. She now looked across at Joey and saw that he, like she had thought earlier, was very fit. As well as this he had an erection which seemed to make his cock look extraordinarily long. Lady sovereign herself was how you would expect her to be. Her body was almost flat and her pussy was well trimmed except for a ring of quite long black hair which ran in a single circle around it. She walked on up to Frankie and swept her hands across her buttocks and down her thighs, Frankie opened her mouth and twirled her tongue around. Lady Sovereign went in for the kiss and they tussled each other's tongues for the next couple of minutes. Sov had forgotten just how much she loved that little pink tongue.

Just as the kiss finished Louise felt a hard dick press against her back, she could tell that Joey was eager for some action. So, turning round, she kneeled down and grasped his cock in her hand. She then put it in her mouth and tasted pre-cum as it poked into her cheek. Taking it back out again she readied herself and then began to bob up and down on it. His moans of pleasure satisfied her but she wanted him to really be in ecstasy and she really wanted that penis in her mouth. So she stopped sucking for a moment and instead she lay back on her bed, with her head hanging down. She then told him to stand over her and for him to fuck her in the mouth. At first he went lightly but soon he was pushing it all the way in, making her gag as he did.

As she was being choked by Frankie's boyfriend Lady Sovereign noticed Frankie herself was now approaching her. Soon she was being licked out by a boyish beauty and having a huge penis shoved down her throat at the same time.

Eventually Sov felt large globs of thick cum filling up her mouth and running down her throat. Some seeped out of her mouth and lubricated the penis more.

By the time she recovered from the jaw action Louise noticed Frankie bending over the opposite side of the bed, having anal sex with her boyfriend. However when he noticed her he withdrew and walked over. Spreading her legs she felt a shiver of joy as his penis entered her vagina.

As she was pumped by Frankie's boyfriend Lady Sovereign thrust forward, she was well aware of the pain as her tiny body rocked on his cock but this pain was mixed with an acute, continuous pleasure. Her body was in tune with his as he reached climax but instead of withdrawing he stayed in. His cum sprayed inside of her and after four shots she felt it trickling down in-between her legs. Now he had withdrawn and her vagina was filled with cum like a cream cake.

Just as Louise went to taste some with her fingers Frankie stopped her. "That's my job babe" she smiled.

Frankie knelt down and pushed her tongue into the cream pie. Some dribbled into her mouth and some overflowed down her chin. The white semen directly contrasted with her ebony skin. Lady Sovereign's sexual climb was re-awakened by this new vaginal activity and she felt herself get closer and closer to orgasm as the girl's lithe tongue arched and flicked inside of her pussy, lapping up the cum and then moving on to dancing on the clit. Soon the remaining man cum was mixed with Sov's lady cum.

By the time she had recovered she noticed Frankie lying on her bed fingering herself. She realised that no-one had properly satisfied her yet. Walking over to her she inserted two then three fingers into her lubricated and surprisingly wide pussy. Frankie grunted with pleasure and rode her fingers until she finally screamed a familiar scream and had a mind splitting orgasm with Sovereign's fingers still inside of her.

Sweating and sexually exhausted Lady Sovereign crawled over Frankie and licked each finger whilst looking into her deep hazel eyes. She then fell asleep, face resting against her friend's pubic hairs.
