Thank you for the emails encouraging me, sharing ideas and inspiration. They keep me going!

The three of us were sound asleep on the bed. We were a tangle of arms, legs and boners. It was about 4pm when we were awakened by the ringing of Matt's cell phone. He untangled himself from Josh and I and ran to grab his phone. He walked back into the room sporting another boner and saying, yeah that sounds like fun, but let me ask if it is okay. He said two of his friends from school wanted to come over and go sledding. I said okay and asked if I needed to pick them up.

Matt checked with them and they said it would be great if I could pick them up. I noticed that we had a lot more snow...probably another 5" in the last two hours. I told Josh that I'd better drive. Mattie's friends lived about 3 miles away. As we pulled up in front of their house, I got out of the truck to open the back for their sleds. The boys walked out. They were breathtaking. Identical twins...totally identical...well at least as much as I could see. Mattie introduced us. Mack this is Jason and Devin. Both boys shook hands with me. Matt explained that they were in a lot of his classes and were 14. I was thinking they looked good enough to eat. Their dad came around from the back of the house shovel in hand. He introduced himself as Bill and we talked for a few minutes as the boys tossed the sleds in the back of the Xterra. Their dad told them to have fun. We waved back and drove off through a drift. It was now blowing and drifting. When we got home the boy ran across the street and got their sleds and then started down the street toward a huge hill.

I still could not get over how good looking the twins are. I was anxious for them to come back after sledding so that I could see them with out their winter jackets and hats. When I knew I would have both boys, I ran over to the warehouse club and got large trays of Lasagna and other dishes that would make it easy to prepare large quantities of food for the young wolves...and they could eat like a pack of wolves.

I put the Lasagna in the oven and turned on the television. I looked out the window and noticed that visibility was down to about 100 yards. This looked like a full blown blizzard. The temperature was starting to drop and the wind picked up. The weather man said that the roads were beginning to drift and that the police and highway patrol has asked everyone to stay home so the plows can do their work. They expected the snow to continue until midnight and expected it to be heavy snow.

An hour later the boys staggered back home...tired and wet. I felt Josh's jeans and they were soaked. I laughed and asked him if he bothered to use the sled. He said not much. At the bottom of the hill there was a huge drift that they went through every time. Okay well everyone is wet and freezing. Get all of those wet clothes off. Mattie go get 4 pair of soccer shoes and 4 terry cloth robes so you guys can jump in the hot tub. The rest of you get the wet clothes off and toss them on the washer. Hang your coats and hats over the backs of the chairs so they will dry.

Devin looked at me and said that they did not have a swimming suit and didn't have anything to change into. I told him that it didn't matter. They could either wear their boxers or go commando. If they wear their boxers they will be commando when their clothes are clean and dry. As the boys stripped off their clothes, I was surprised that they were wet to the skin. Devin and Jason had stripped to their boxers. Josh and Mattie could not take their eyes off of them. Their bodies were awesome. I asked them how they both stayed in such great shape and they said they were on the swim team.

I glanced over at Josh as he slid off his boxers and Mattie was doing the same thing. Both boys seemed to have a slight chub, but not so much that Jason and Devin would notice. Devin, I think, was the first to slide his boxers off. As he turned and handed them to me and so did Jason. Josh and Mattie used it as an opportunity to study the twins. I thought they were going to stare a hole in the twin's privates...that I guess were not so private at the moment. Both boys were circumcised and for 14 year olds were very well developed. While they did not have much pubic hair, their penises were well developed and their testicles were full descended and large. All of their clothes were now in the washer and I now had a spectacular view of 4 amazing boys. I notice that Devin had a tiny mole above the collar line that Jason did not have...maybe I could tell them apart. That would be the only way. Their bodies were absolutely identical otherwise. Jason turned toward me and said we really are identical. I grinned and said that was for sure. I asked the boys if they wanted to leave the robes in here where they would stay warm and make a run for the tub...They did make a run for it and being outside naked messing around with other boys was enough to make all four of the show the beginning signs of wood. I noticed that Mattie managed to get between the twins and he had his arms around their shoulders. He was patting them on the shoulder and then quickly dropped both of his hands into the hot tub. I was looking out the bay window which overlooks the hot tub. It was difficult to see in the turbulent water, but it seemed that Mattie had rested his hand on the thighs of the twins. I did not want them to look up and see me perverting the situation, so I went back in the kitchen sure that my erection was going to split out the front of my pants.

I fixed a loaf of bread and put it in the oven to toast and a salad. Dinner was ready so I went to get the boys. I held the robes for them as they got out of the hot tub and slipped them on. All of them were fully erect. The twins were about 6" to 6 1/2" and staring at them got me fully hard again too. I could not help but admire their young bodies. Their bodies were tight and muscular. Their abs were developing nicely. As Devon lifted his arm to put it in the robe, I noticed a wisp of hair under his arm. It was totally apparent that I was staring at his body and when we my eyes came up to meet his eyes he was staring back smiling. When the boys got in the house, I asked the twins what their dad's phone number is. I called Bill and told him what was going on. I explained that we had plenty of food and their clothes were in the dryer. I asked him if it was okay to give the boys a small glass of wine with dinner to warm them up. He said yeah sure. As soon as I hung up, Rick called to check on us. He had seen the news about the blizzard and wanted to be sure that we were okay. I told him the same thing that I had just told Bill. I asked him about the wine and he said it was okay too. He asked me what I thought about taking the boys home later. I told him I was concerned and what they had said on television. He said he had to call and give his the Captain at the precinct an update on his situation and would ask him what he thought about the roads.

I had Jason grab two bottles of red wine from the pantry while Josh and Devin were dishing up dinner. Mattie got everybody a glass of water. The phone rang moments later and Rick said the Captain said that the roads were awful and most of the problem was 4 wheel drive vehicles getting stuck. I told him everyone would be spending the night. The boys seemed pretty happy about the news.

Jason asked what they should wear for dinner. I told him I didn't think they had too many options. Their clothes were still drying and had a long way to go. They had a choice of either wearing the robes or dining naked. Everybody laughed and I was somewhat disappointed that they chose the robes...dang! I know I was probably staring

I called Bill back and told him that Rick was a Sergeant on the police force and had called about the roads. I explained the situation and told him that the twins would be warm and comfortable here for the night. I had died and gone to heaven...4 hot looking boys wearing nothing but a robe. We joined hands and said the blessing and I knew I had much to be thankful for that evening. I raised my wine glass and made a toast to good friends and a fun evening. I happened to glance at Mattie when I made the toast and he winked at me. The boys tasted their wine and started to dig in to their meal. Conversation at dinner was mostly about the sledding. As we finished up, the boys helped me clear the table and put the dishes in the dishwasher.

It was early and I decided that it might be fun to play cards and watch it snow. I had an old poker board game called Tripoley. The boys thought playing poker would be fun. It was agreed that everyone would start with $5 worth of chips and if you lost those you were out of the game. We were having a great time but Jason had a run of bad luck. He lost the last of his chips. Mattie was a sport and said he would buy Jason's robe for enough chips for another round. Jason asked what would happen if he lost. Mattie answered that he would be naked the rest of the night...all night! Jase looked a little worried, but said okay. Mattie sat there waiting. Jason looked at Mattie and finally asked if he had to take it off now...everybody said yeah. Jason stood up. He was standing next to Matt as he removed his robe. Jase was gorgeous. He was also rock hard. Mattie looked at him and said, dude...you are way hard...he reached over and lightly pulled Jase's erection down...after a moment he let it snap up and slap his belly.

Jason sat back down naked and so hard his penis throbbed with each heart beat. We played the next round and Jason needed more chips to stay in the poker round. He asked Mattie to loan him more chips.

Josh smiled and said, well I guess it is official...we are now playing strip poker.

Jase said well duh...I have been sitting here naked for 20 minutes.

Josh said, yeah I know but in strip poker if you lose this round you have to do whatever the person who loaned you the chips wants you to do. It is repayment for the loss.

Jase asked, well like what?

Josh said, anything Mattie wants...anything!

Mattie just grinned and looked over in Jase's lap and said wow dude you are leaking...and reached over and caught a drip of precum before it landed on the dining room chair. Mack you may want to get him a towel.

I got Jase a towel for his chair. He stood up to spread it on the chair...everyone stared at his tight butt as he turned around.

The betting continued and Mattie called...His 4 aces won the hand...Jason blushed deep red all the way down his chest...Mattie could not have been happier...he looked at Jase and said, dude you look a little worried and gently flipped his penis again...this time there was precum all over it and it made kind of a splat sound when it hit his belly.

Jase I am sorry dude, but sitting here next to you naked has made me really horny...I mean really horny! I want you to suck me.

I am not sure what Jase expected...but from the look on his face this was much more than he expected...Devin was shocked too, but smiling.

Mattie stood up his massively hard erection popping out of his robe.

Looks like Jason isn't the only one drooling...

Jase asked where he wanted to go?

Mattie smiled and slowly took off his robe...Devin's eyes almost popped out of his sockets...Mattie said, right here will be fine.

Jase kind of stammered...you mean in front of Mack and everyone...

Mattie said yes. Jase walked toward Mattie...Mattie placed his hands on Jase's shoulders and applied some gentle pressure and Jase was quickly kneeling on the rug in front of Mattie...His look was starting to change from one of fear to one of lust...

Jase's eyes were looking into Mattie's as he gently took hold of his cock. Mattie moaned softly. While looking into each other's eyes Jase licked the tip of Mattie's raging penis. Mattie moaned again in pleasure and ran his fingers to Jason's blond hair.

Out of the corner of my eye I saw Josh put his hand in Devin's lap. Devin moaned gently and thrust his pelvis toward the hand.

We could see Jason's tongue cup the sensitive underside of Mattie's penis as he gently fondled his low hanging testicles...then the penis began to disappear slowly into Jason's hungry mouth.

Josh had his hand inside Devin's robe exploring his aching boner...this was going to be quite a show.

Jase slowly took all of Mattie stem...deep in his throat he savored burying his nose in Mattie's sandy colored pubes...Mattie traced the outline of Jason's ears and continued to stroke his hair. Mattie was going to savor this experience...Jason put his hands on Mattie's bubble butt...he drew Matt deep in his throat again...and then pulled back and gave Mattie's member a tongue bath...he licked down and around his testicles...gently sucking each of them.

As much as Matt wanted this to last for ever, he could feel his orgasm building like a huge storm...he was aching to plant his seed deep in Jase...He really wanted to fuck him...he knew he needed release.

Jase kissed the tip and licked it around the corona...Mattie's head went back and his facial expression was pure pleasure mixed with a bit of agony...Jase wanted to taste his friend's seed...he felt Mattie's testicles draw up and knew that he was close to exploding...Jase wanted to feel his friend go over the edge. Jase began to suck harder and increased his pace as he felt Mattie's erection swell...Mattie lost it at that point and moaned loudly as he started face fucking Jason as hard as he could...The tension in his body was so great that he could not stand it...he reached the point of no return...as he thrust his manhood deeply in Jason he felt his seed burn its way through his penis...a huge jet escaped the tip of his penis and drenched Jason's tonsils...Jason was determined to taste his friend's seed so he pulled back and all the next few shots to land on his tongue.

I was so engrossed with Mattie that I had not paid attention to Josh and Devin...as I looked over...Josh had his head buried in Devin's lap and Devin was moaning loudly...clearly close to a massive climax. As Mattie exploded, Devin let out a loud groan. He clutched Josh's head and held it in his lap as his hips bucked up off the chair. Devin said, oh shit Josh I am soooo close!

Josh took over and he intensified his sucking. Devin was continuously moaning and running his fingers through Josh's sandy blond hair. Devin had a sharp intake of breath as he reached the point of no return...Josh was going for every drop of his nectar. Devin lifted off the chair as his orgasm overwhelmed him. He let out a long continuous cry as he unloaded shot after shot of his seed in Josh's mouth.

I looked over and watched Mattie help Jase up and smiled as he pulled Jase into a tight embrace. Jase glanced back to see his brother's orgasm continue. As he turned back toward Mattie, he was a bit startled to find Matt swop in for a kiss. As the passion of the kiss increased, it was clear that Mattie tasted both Jase and his own sperm.

As Devin's climax subsided I sat down behind Jase. Mattie went to get a glass of water and I started to rub Jason's ass. I was amazed at how tight it was. Swimming had done a marvelous job sculpting his body.

He turned to face me and I leaned toward him so that his erection made contact with my cheek...I felt his precum as he slimed my cheek. I pull back slightly so that his boyhood was at my lips. I gently kissed the tip and then cleaned the copious precum marveling at a 14 year old's ability to produce that much lubricant. I let his corona slide past my lips savoring his taste. I concentrated my tongue on the underside of his erection where all of the nerve endings were firing and bringing him close. I knew with all of the stimulation he would not last long. I began to suck him with intensity. I raked my finger nails over the back of his thighs feeling his body flinch as each nerve ending reacted to my touch.

Jason's penis began to swell in the final moments before his orgasm. I could feel his entire body tense. I felt his testicles and they were drawn up forcing the seed to prepare for launch. His rocket was ready to explode and I desperately wanted to taste his essence. I raked his thighs again figuring that it would probably put him over the edge...and he responded with a reflexive thrust that signaled his orgasm had taken control of his body. I was shocked that I could actually feel the surge of sperm race through his penis. All Jase could do was cry out as the seed burned a path from his body to mine. The intensity of the orgasm was powerful. He grabbed me by the hair as he lost control and pounded my face in an effort to feed me every drop of his essence. There is nothing like the taste of boy sperm in the evening...what a wonderful dessert. As his orgasm began to subside, I penetrated his rosebud with my finger and went deep to massage his prostate. I was rewarded with two more thrusts. I stood up and held his naked body against my fully clothes body...his leaking penis soiling my khakis. I held him close. Devin got up and came over to us and hugged both of us. His drippy cock got the other leg of my khakis. I wondered what the dry cleaner would think.

Mattie took his brother into his arms and kissed him. The chaste kiss became one of great passion...I want to pleasure you, he told Josh. Josh said, lil bro I really am hot and I want to fuck you. Mattie never hesitated...he got some olive oil from the counter and began to lube his ass. Josh walked over and began to use the oil to lube his rock hard cock...not that it needed much lube...he was dripping before he started. The twins and I watched shamelessly as Mattie bent over holding the edge of the counter. His brother expertly positioned his erection so that it would slide deeply into his brother. Mattie groaned and said, man that feels good. I have needed you. Josh began to fuck him and told him that he would not last long...Devin made me so hot. Mattie's cock began to drool on the floor as Josh expertly pounded his ass...Mattie began to moan loudly crying, fuck me Josh!!!! And Josh did again and again. As Josh's climax approached I hugged the twins and reached around for a nipple on each boy...as their cocks began to rise again, I had their nipple in a death grip.

Josh lay over Mattie's back and fucked him deeply...again and again...as he held Mattie's erect nipples in each hand. Josh went over the edge just as Devin knelt to worship at his brother penis. I kissed Jase while Devin began to suck him...I massaged his nipples and listened as Josh planted his seed deep in his brother...a seed that would grow their passion and love for each other. Oh shit Mattie....I'm cuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuming. Jase and I watched as Josh bucked again and again burring his ramrod hard cock deep in his brother. That was enough to push Jase over the edge...he filled Devin's mouth with the family seed virtually identical to his brothers...I could not help but wonder if they tasted the same...
